THE PRINCE OF COMEDIANS.

Alba Heywood and His Peerless Company.

Everybody will be delighted to learn that Alba Heywood, the prince of comedians, whose marvellous ability to impersonate, whose funny topical songs, bright witty sayings and sweet singing have established him as a prime favorite with amusement seekers, will appear here March 19th.

Few there are who do not remember this comedian in his impersonations of "The Cuckoo Song," "The Old Maid," "The Chinaman," "Josiah Allen's Wife," "Silly Billy," introducing the wonderful imitations of caliope, phonograph and animals, his humorous stories and catchy songs.

Mr. Heywood, as befits an artist of his ability, is always abreast of the times and returns to us with a brand new program designed for laughing purposes only. He has surrounded himself with a carefully selected company, each being as fine in their respective lines as Mr. Heywood is in his.

He is accompanied on this tour by Miss Gertrude Monroe, the Brilliant Violinist.
